

Peace and Harmony Living Community

a back to basic journey

Weekend Peace and harmony..

PEACE & HARMONY : Offers the possibility to connect to inspiration, to love, to inner self and creativity, the possibility to contribute, to let others contribute to you, the place to be, the place to work, to relax, to play, to be yourself, to let yourself be inspired, a place where you can to stay for a while, the place to love. - To learn, to teach, to give and to receive.

NEVER STOP DREAMING

The space and freedom to be, inspiring people and activities, care for global transformation, and the opportunity to make a difference.

Pure natural environment, pristine nature, clean biological creative food, permaculture, wild raw high energy food, natural building and friendly solutions for our planet.

THERE IS ONLY ONE OF YOU:
EXPRESSION VS IMPRESSION

Welcome to Peace and Harmony !!

.. living a simple back to basic life style, using as little as possible commercial products, staying away from the things we don't really need, being with like minded people, appreciating simple things in life, building a self sustainable life, growing our own food, using local products, sharing knowledge around permaculture and natural building, having fun all day long in a relaxed natural environment, following our own natural rhythm, being in harmony with our surrounding, creating from nature around us, making music and working together towards a new way of life.. learning everyday.

daily encounter of self.

INNER CHILD : An alternative way to explore aspects of childhood. A period in life everyone of us have experienced differently. Generating conversations around illustration can help us relate to events differently, sharing and listening to others. Learning from experiences of others while assessing ours from different points of view.

The inner Child encounter is a journey of exploration which is fun, easy accessible, producing powerful life changing results, inner child

En exploration of self, sharing freely or inquiring quietly for yourself ..

At the beginning of the journey we have an introductory round so everyone can introduce Him / herself .. we then have a sharing sessions about ourselves. Choose a card and describe objectively / literally what is on the card and then share a bit why we choose this specific cards.

Everyday we have a small session with the cards adding words to it from the other deck and generate conversations around that specific word in combination with the illustration. Other can relate to any card of the participants and share something if they feel like ..

After a few days we are able to construct a story around the subject and either share it in group or release it into the campfire.. at the end of the workshop most of the time.

forest art .. creating from nothing

Nature provides insights, symbiotic relations between plants human and animals .. observing and understanding how this interacts with each other can give us a more clear picture on mechanics of life and self in relation to the world around us ..

In this group activity we explore the creation of an energy vortex in the forest harvesting energy flows directing them with intention.. while the group is working together some aspects can be observed .. team building activity, friendships, self-expression, leadership, ways of interaction..
